Cornelius Vanderbilt gave the bride ner's will was made the head of th family, urging this in order to sho plete reconciliation in the family.

This feature of the ceremony had been widely discussed in society, and there were many wild rumors affoat concerning a brotherly wrangle over who should step up as the head of the ng orchids to the ballroom, wher the floral bower and received congratula-

As Countess Szechenyi Miss Gladys anderbilt steps into the front rank of the noble families of Hungry. The Count is twenty-nine years old and the zechenyi, who for many years was the Austro-Hungary Ambassador at I'm and the intimate friend of three can take his bride to live in two cas-tles that are not encumbered, nor will

The police arrangements for guarding bride from the contact of a curious rangements from Mulberry street, send-Vanderoilt mansion from the public. Likewise thirty Central Office men were detailed to mingle with the crowds and keep a wary eye out for pick-

Inspector Walsh and forty men inrested the Fifty-seventh street entrance Vanderbilt, while Inspector Schmittber-ger, with sixty men, looked after the repetition of the disgraceful mobbing Not Allowed to Cross the Street.

Harry Payne Whitney as they across Fifty-seventh street from entitling them to admission to the were charged by Capt. Burns and Automobiles and brilliant equipages of his racing automobiles, his wife fol-

Help Wan ed To-Day!

As advertised for in The Morning

World's W	ant Directory.
MON	DAY, JAN. 27, 1908.
Art. Flowers 1:	2 Girls 2
Agents 1
Amateurs	5 Ironers 1
Artists	2 Janitors 1
Bakers	3 Janitresses
Bookkeepers	8 Kitchen Help
Boys 3
Butchers 2	2 Machinists
	5 Manieures
Canvassers	7 Milliners
Chambermaids 1	Nursos 1
Collegeors	8 Operators 8
Compa fors	5 Printers
	Freesers 1
Cooks (Female) 1
Cutters	Salesmen 2
	8 Sign Painters
The state of the s	Holicitors
	5 Trimmers
	6 Typewriters (F.)
Feeders	Winders
	Waiters
	8 Wattresses

Count and Countess Szechenyi After Ceremony, the Bride's Mother and View of Vanderbilt Home 500 AMERICAN GIRLS, attended the wedding of the Duke Before the two inspectors arrived Roxburghe and Miss May Goelet at and undertook the guarding of the Van-

The background of the decorations lowing with her children in another car. Cornelius Vanderblit dismissed his equipage at Fifty-sixth street and splendid stairway of Caen stone on the main floor into a fairwland of bloom an effort to jot down ideas and de-scriptions of the rich gowns that were scattered through the drawingroom, blending into the higher tones of from Beethoven's fifth symphony.

them with arrest and annihilation.
"I will not have the Vanderbilts annoyed," said Inspector Walsh, "and if any of you fellows cross the line again I will run you in."

The Count's Wily Manoeuvre.

Hatel Guess Fill Windows.

Hatel Guess Fill Windows.

There was almost as much excitation of your fellows cross the line again I ment over the wedding in the Plaza and Savoy Hotels as on the street. The windows of the skyscraping hostelries were still waiting without the police with and Mrs. Dave Hennen Morring out the hundreds of curious who bri.

Mariz Die Sundenbrum, the dream George W. Vanderbilt. All and Douglas Sloane. Mr. and Mrs. Davies will man derbilt and Gretel" and the barcarolle from Offenbach's "Les Contes d'Hoffmann."

The wedding breakfast was extended well into the afternoon in the hope of well in the hundreds of curious who bri.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Hennen Morring out the hundreds of curious who bri.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Hennen Morring out the hundreds of curious who bri.

ney home where he had spent the night to the home of his bride. Unaccompanied he crept stealthily down the steps and walked a little way west toward Sixth avenue. Then he turned and walked back, crossing the street diagonally and finally dashing with his condition of the bound of the bound of the bride were also and damask curtable had fund back from the pavement.

From the outside, nothing could be seen of the brilliant function within, for many folds of lace and damask curtable he curious watchers could see the house.

Only the members of the family entered on the Fifty-seventh street side, the guests driving in through the Fifty-seventh street side, the guests driving in through the Fifty-selegisth street entrances of the home of his bride. Unaccompliant function within panied by the balconies. The entrances of the house of the wedding dispayed in the Vanderbilt home to Vanderbilt home to Vanderbilt on the vanderbilt home to Vanderbilt on the vanderbilt home to Vanderbilt home to Vanderbilt on the vanderbilt home to Vand the guests driving in through the Fiftyleighth street entrance between a lane of stalwart policemen. Alfred Vanderbilt drove to the house alone in Sale was the flash of beaudful gowns and the glitter of gems worn by the guests glits to her daughter, chief among them as they left their carriages and were swallowed up in the funnel of awning leading to the entrance.

The background of the decorations of parts and diamonds, and the of pearls and diamonds, and the Duchess of Marlborough, the bride's cousin, sent a rope chain of pearls, with tassels of pearls and diamonds. The wift of Mr. and Mrs. William K. Vanhis equipage at Fifty-sixth street and walked to the house. His wife was not with him

It was a difficult task to keep the throng in circulation and also maintain with great pains for their wealth of a gangway for the wedding guests, but the inspectors saw that their women and the little groups of male ladies' tailors who wriggled about in an effort to jot down ideas and descriptions of the rich gowns that splendid stairway of Caen stone on the main floor into a fairyland of bioson of the stone on the main floor into a fairyland of bloom was a ring set with a large derbit, fr., was a ring set with a large derbit, fr., was a ring set with a large derbit, fr., was a ring set with a large derbit, fr., was a ring set with a large of the Countess provided the elegant chest of silver and gold plate, and the bridegroom's gift was a casket of the Szechenyi family itself. The three brothers of the Countess provided the elegant chest of silver and gold plate, and the bridegroom's gift was a casket of the Szechenyi family itself. The three brothers of the Countess provided the elegant chest of silver and gold plate, and the bridegroom's gift was a casket of the Szechenyi family itself. The three brothers of the Countess provided the elegant chest of silver and gold plate, and the bridegroom's gift was a casket of the Szechenyi family itself. The three brothers of the Countess provided the elegant chest of silver and gold plate, and the bridegroom's gift was a casket of the Szechenyi family itself. The three brothers of the Countess provided the elegant chest of silver and gold plate, and the bridegroom's gift was a casket of the Szechenyi family itself. The three brothers of the Countess provided the elegant chest of silver and gold plate, and the bridegroom's gift was a casket of the Szechenyi family itself. The three brothers of the Countess provided the plate, and the bridegroom's gift was a casket of the Szechenyi family itself. The three brothers of the Countess provided the plate, and the bridegroom's gift was a ca some blending into the higher tones of yellow that blazed in the Moorish room and dining hall. There was a delicate predominance of yellow—the Hungarian national color—but not enough to design the Color of the Allantia tones maintained in the clusters of spring flowers—likes, tulips, jonguils and filtes of the valley that were neaped upon the tables.

A great well of paims and ferm, woven into a living wall of green with smilax and the trailing tendrils of rare vinces smothered from view Nainan Franko's exchestra of sixty-five pieces. The bride, who is an accomplished musician, a pupil for several years of Jean de Reszke in Paris, personally escentification in life, and she is not Jean de Reszke in Paris, personally escentification in life, and she is not feel the finding of the leaded by the seductive strains of the kwo movements from Tschafkow were greeted by the seductive strains of the kwo movements from Tschafkow ways "Sympiony Painetique," the love music from the second act of Wagner's Stription Paineting and the strailing tendrils of the work of the swo movements from Tschafkow music from the second act of Wagner's Stription Paineting and the second second paineting and the second second paineting and the strailing tendrils of the second paineting and the strailing tendrils and the strailing tendrils and Some of Bride's Accomplishments

Cornellus's Busy Day.

Count Stefan Szechemyl and Count Paul

The bride's attendants—Miss Ruth Vanderbilt Twombly, daugiter of Miss and Mrs. Hamilton McK. Twombly, and Mrs. Hamilton Mrs. Locker, and Mrs. Elected Mrs. Gerry, in Miss Gould married the pleturesque Boni it was confuncted the form Mrs. Luther Kountze, Mrs. and Mrs. Gerry, in Miss Gould mrs.
And the steep and the members of his staff. Altotwo Mrs. Hamilton Mrs. Latter Mrs. Trederic Miss Coule and the pleturesque Boni it was confuncted the form Mrs. Luther Kountze, Mrs. and Mrs. Locker, and Mrs. Elected To Gerry, in Miss Gould married the pleturesque Boni it was a union from Two Mrs. McK. Townsell, Mrs. Miss Gould married the pleturesque Boni it was a union from Two Mrs. McK. Townsell, Mrs. Miss Gould married the pleturesque Monik Mrs. Luther Mrs. Luther Kountze, Mrs. And

Count and Bride to Pool and Share Their Incomes. anything else could have won the mand Miss all of the "cottages" where he and Miss

If the union of Miss Vanderbilt and Count Szechenyi is anything at a love match, there is nothing to indicate it. Miss Vanderbilt has something like $12,000,000 in her own right, to be sure, but the Count is like-larm of manner has placed him far above the esteem in which many for all or the hands of American If the union of Miss Vanderbilt and Count Szechenyi is anything aut wise wealthy, as wealth goes in Hungary. There has been no exact statement of his riches, but it is known that he receives an income of $60,000 how long were their titles and short or $70,000 a year-enough to keep any Hungarian wolf from even a derbilt herself has so declared, and surely she ought to know. There has and he would not accept a settlement, the inherent good-fellowship of the

It's purely a case of love. Miss Van- is pretty good reason to believe that if who has won an American bride were not for this deep love no wedng bells would be ringing in the faous Vanderbilt mansion to-day.

Count Wins by Good-Fellowship.

Miss Vanderbilt was hespitably relived when the and the spitably relived when the large translation of the fighting line in 955, when the Magyars were breaking into Europe from the plains of Asia and overrunning Hungary and Transylvania in the tenth century. ing bells would be ringing in the fa-

Dressmakers ... 8 Sign Painters 2 Sign Painters 2 Sign Painters 2 Sign Painters 2 Sign Painters 3 Sign Painters 4 Solicitors 4 Solicitors 4 Sign Painters 5 Sign Painters 5 Sign Painters 5 Sign Painters 6 Sign Painters 6 Sign Painters 6 Sign Painters 7 Sign Painters 8 Solicitors 9 Solicitors 8 Solicitors 9 Solicitors 8 Solicitors 9 Solicitors 10 Solicitors 9 Solicitors 9 Solicitors 10 so, and because there is every reason fall to meet the American friends and to believe that nothing but genuine, old-family of his fiances he had a matter Ave. and 23d St.

WITH$205,000,000. HAVE WED TITLES

Many International Marriages Have Been Happy, but List of Disastrous Ones Is Appalling-Some of the Noted Cases.

More than five hundred American girls have married titled foreigners, and a careful statistician has figured that a trifle more than $208,000,000 has been taken over seas through Cupid's influence. This amount does not include the fortune of Miss Gladys Vanderbilt, who

Not only have the marriages of American heiresses filled the depleted coffers of foreign noblemen but many of the fair Americans have presented their husbands with heirs to inherit the titles. Also have the American

But more than all that, he is a thorough sportsman and a charming type of

His knowledge of horseflesh won the admiration of the Vanderbilts as hardly Vanderbilt have been invited he has carried himself with dignity, and his eign suitors for the hands of American helresses have been held, no matter

Szechenyi of Ancient Lineage. In lineage, no titled foreigner overfunning Hungary and Transylvania in the tenth century.

Like all of the other heads of great Hungarian families, the wealth of Count Laszlo lies chiefly in land. The young Count owns thousands of acres divided into farms and forest preserves, and from these domains he draws his income in tributes of wheat, tobacco, hempland grapes.

im in the left arm.

their pocketbooks.

rmed.

Bradley Martins became allie the English nobility in 1903 where the English married the Earl of the Translation of the English Martin married the Earl of the English Martin married to Earl of the English Martin married the English Martin E aver of his flancee's friends CHICAGO AND ALTON AND BURLINGTON GET WRITS.

Hungarian cavalier. He has trav WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.-The St elled extensively, and in his twentyreme Court of the United States to. ight years has had a few experiences day granted the petitions of the Chihat try the nerve of the most couragecago, Burlington and Quincy and the thicago and Alton Railroad Companies His Duel With Batonyi. for writs of certiorari in the Govern-A couple of years ago, for instance ment cases against them on charges he fought a duel with Aurel Batony of granting rebates. on the Austrian frontier and wounded

The action of the court will bring th cases to this court for review

a natural product, rich in all the essentials that produce endurance, energy, brawn and sinew. "It maketh man strong."

Sunday World Wants Work Monday Morning Wonders.

May Manton Patterns. Announcement.

After March 1st, in addition to our many other branches in New tives were asked about a settlement marry a foreigner. Velled reports sifted upon their arrival to attend the wed-out of Newport of little snubs adminat Home." will be on sale at the store of the

Simpson Crawford Company, Sixth Avenue and 19th Street,

Until that date our patrons in the Sixth Avenue zone may be supplied at the 14th St. Store, at 21 West 23d St., and also corner Lexington Wanted: Branches Throughout the City Where We Have None.

MAY MANTON PATTERN CO., 182 and 134 West 27th St., New York City.

WAS THREATENED

By Terrible Eczema-Head Became a Mass of Itching Rash and Sores -Would Scratch Till Blood Came -Much Money Wasted in Fruitless Treatments-Disease Was Soon

CURED AT SLIGHT COST BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

all one sore. We used different remedies but it got worse instead of better and we thought she would turn bind and that her ears would fall off. She suffered terribly, and would scratch until the blood came. At night we had to pin her hands down. This went on until she was five months old, then I had her under our family does.

Miss By an Itching Humor. Another

Cure by Cuticura Remedies.

Specials for This Tuesday.

Clearing Sale % discount on all cash sales

Grand Rapid Furniture.

LIBERAL CREDIT $75 Worth $7.50 Down $1.50 Week 100 " 10.00 " 2.00 " 150 " 15,00 " 2.25 "

.. 15,00 300 " 30.00

CUNNINGHAM .-- On Jan. 25, ELLEN M. CUNNINGHAM, beloved wife of late Capt. James G. Cunningham, Co. I, 69th Regiment, and beloved mother John, James, George Cunningham and Mrs. Mary Fox (nee Cunningham). Funeral from residence of her son-in-law, William Fox, 120 Varick st., Tuesday, Jan. 28. Friends and relatives are kindly invited to attend. May her soul rest in peace, HAYES.—On Jan. 27, at No. 572 Brooms

st., ROBERT HAYES, age 32 years.

Requim mass at St. Alphoneus's Church Tuesday, Jan. 28, at 10 o'clock. Interment Calvary Cemetery. Funeral strictly private. STEELE.—On Monday, Jan. 27, GEORGE STEELE, Sr. Funeral services at the residence of his son-in-law, Edward Lyons, 583 E. 170th st., on Tuesday evening, Jan. 28, at 3 o'clock. Interment at 1 P. M. on Wed

LOST, FOUND AND REWARDS. LOST—On Saturday night, Hoboken ferry en route to or in Thum's Bowling Alleys, 31st st. and Broadway, tan wallet containing $270. Owner can't afford to lose money, Ample reward. Address C. B., 78 Merces st., city.